can of Wednesday, and is to this effect: "Several months ago, an agent for Guizot's History of France procured a large number of subscribers to that work, which was to have been delivered in three volumes. He subsequently sold out his interest to another party, who announced that there would be one or two additional volumes. As the subscribers had entered into an agreement to pay a certain price for the complete history in three vol-umes, they of course refused to pay. One of them, Isaac Rhea, entered a suit against the second agent, who, Mr. Rhea claimed, was bound to carry out the contract of his predecessor, and a judgment in plaintiff's favor was rendered in the circuit court yesterday. AMUSEMENTS.

The Theater Manager will Take Notice EDITORS APPEAL-Many ladies, situated so they cannot attend the Theater at night, wish to see Katie Putnam play Jane Eyrc. They also wish to see Mag-gie Mitchell in some other play than Function or Old Curiosity Shop, and wish you to suggest it in your columns. Those two plays are, it seems, always selected for matiness; ask them to change the programme for the matiness, MANY LADY FRIENDS.

The Theater. At the Theater last night The Old Curiosity Shop was reproduced, Miss Put-nam sustaining the dual character of "Little Nell" and "The Marchioness" well up to the scale of former occasions. Her songs and dances, and musical performances were appreciated by as at-tentive audience. To-night the little lady appears as "Amry, the Little Bare-foot," in the beautiful domestic play entitled The Little Barefoot, a com-panion to Fanchon, and in the portrayal of which Miss Putnam and her company have won favorable comments from the most exacting critics. This is said to be her masterpiece, and we hope to see a crowded house to greet her in the character she has chosen for a Memphis Friday night audience. Dur-ing the play Miss Putnam will render a song, the words and music of which are her own composition. The Old Curiosity Shop is billed for the matinee to-morrow afternoon, but we hope the management will make the change requested by "Many Ladies" in another place, and which, we think, will be in good taste, as the former play has already been presented twice by the Putnam combination.

TEMPERANCE.

Union, of Memphis,

Under the above name, on the sixth of March, at a meeting of ladies held in the First Methodist church, was formed a society for the active prosecution of temperance work. A full con-stitution was adopted and temporary officers were elected. An adjourned meeting was appointed for Wednesday evening, the fifteenth instant, at o'clock promptly, at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Court street. The ladies already enrolled urgently request all ladies, married or single, young er old, who are at all interested in the cause of temperance, to be present at this meeting. It is not expected that all will take an active or public part. But all can give the encouragement of their presence and the weight of their names They say "we owe it to our sisters of New Orleans, Nashville and other cities, who are engaged actively in the temperance movement under the plans lately -A Nashville court has decided that | initiated, to be no less active than they the agents of the Guizot History of in this cause so vitally important to France must fulfill their engagements every wife and mother."

LETTERS FROM THE PROPLE.

"The Desceration of the Sabbath." EDITORS APPEAL-An article headed 'The Desecration of the Sabbath" appeared in Wednesday's is ue of your paper, in which "Inquirer" presumes to condemn exhibitions and such like amusements on a Sunday, as tending to destroy religion. Now, is it not time, Mesers. Editors, that those religious cantlemen begin to consider that there gentlemen begin to consider that there is quite a number of decided atheists of as members, though their labors be en-tirely or mainly confined to their own homes or to their own immediate circle. tion on a Sunday, but who certainly have a right to make the Sunday for themselves a day of 19st and recreation as well? As "loquirer" pictures it, one might be led to believe that poor, sufferering humanity had been compelled to attend Prof. Pepper's exhibition, and thereby been robbed of the rest which Sunday should have afforded. Now, it seems to me that those who do not wish to attend an exhibition, drama, lecture, or any other amusement, can do as they please. But, on the other hand, it is but just that those who do wish to amuse themselves in such manuer should be left at full liberty to do so on a Sunday as well as any other day of the week. In no manner does an exhibition at the Theater, or any other public hall interfere with the religious ceremo-nies being enacted in any church of the city at the same time; and it is but fair that religious people should not try to > men to awaken to the fact that "no religion" is with some people a religion also. Honi soit qui mal y pense, ATHEIST.

and settle into troublesome disorders. Eraptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of those same humors to some internal organ or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they destroy. Atter's Sarsaparkilla expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Kruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's First, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Postnies. Blotches, Bolls, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sories, Rheumatism, Neufalgia, Pafa in the Lones, Side and fiead, Fomale Weakness, Stellity Leuchorrhose arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.
